Appreciation

1. The Food and Agriculture Branch of this Division recently completed a very substantial research effort on the New Lands program of the USSR. The M/AS report now being edited benefited greatly from your contributions published as "A Geographical Appraisal of the New Lands Program," and "A Geographic Analysis of the Canadian Wheat Lands." Both of these reports served as a basis for the preparation of important sections of our paper.

2. We would like to express our appreciation to your Division, and particularly to [REDACTED], for the assistance provided us. The two reports cited are excellent products in their own right, and contributed significantly to the success of our own work. We are grateful for the excellent cooperation we received throughout.
